DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with L. Rhys Lawson on July 18, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 16, line 9, delete "and".

In claim 16, line 12, after "material", add

-- ; and (c) the temperature-responsive material is deposited by plasma deposition at a first high deposition power and at least one second low deposition power, and has a first layer that crosslinks and adheres to a surface at the first high deposition power and at least one second layer that forms at the at least one second low deposition power--

In claim 26, line 8, delete "and".

In claim 26, line 9, after "surface", add

--and wherein the temperature-responsive layer is deposited by plasma deposition at a first high deposition power and at least one second low deposition power, and comprises a temperature-responsive material having a first layer that

Art Unit: 1641

crosslinks and adheres to the second surface at the first high deposition power and at least one second layer that forms at the at least one second low deposition that can exist in a first state that binds molecules or living cells, and can exist in a second state that binds substantially less molecules or living cells than the first state, and wherein the temperature-responsive material is reversibly convertible to the first state from the second state in response to an effective amount of thermal energy--

In claim 31, line 6, after the comma, add

--, wherein the temperature-responsive material is deposited by plasma deposition at a first high deposition power and at least one second low deposition power, and has a first layer that crosslinks and adheres to a surface at the first high deposition power and at least one second layer that forms at the at least one second low deposition power,--.

In claim 38, line 7, after the comma, add

--wherein the temperature-responsive material is deposited by plasma deposition at a first high deposition power and at least one second low deposition power, and has a first layer that crosslinks and adheres to a surface at the first high deposition power and at least one second layer that forms at the at least one second low deposition power,--.

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-9 and 11-15 are directed to an allowable product. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in MPEP § 821.04(B), claims 16-47 (as amended by the examiner's amendment above), directed to the process of making or using an allowable product, previously withdrawn from consideration as a result of a restriction requirement, are hereby rejoined and fully examined for patentability under 37 CFR 1.104.

Because all claims previously withdrawn from consideration under 37 CFR 1.142 have been rejoined, the restriction requirement as set forth in the Office action mailed on June 30, 2006 is hereby withdrawn. In view of the withdrawal of the restriction requirement as to the rejoined inventions, applicant(s) are advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Once the restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. See In re Ziegler, 443 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9 and 11-47 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest a temperature-responsive layer deposited by plasma deposition at a first high deposition power and at least one second low deposition power, and comprises a temperature-responsive material having a first layer that crosslinks and adheres to the second surface at the first high deposition power and at least one second layer that forms at the at least one second low deposition power. It is understood that the plasma deposition at the respective high and low deposition powers form different products, and such products formed as layers are not disclosed or suggested by the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
